

*"The youth in this state are becoming more empowered, and are taking on a role that has never been seen before."
-Council Member, Dec. 2007*

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN POLITICS?

LOOKING TO GET MORE INVOLVED?

WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

...THEN APPLY FOR THE LEGISLATIVE YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL!

Created in 2005, the Legislative Youth Advisory Council (LYAC) is the formal voice for youth in the Washington State legislative process. The 22-member council works to be the link between young people and the state government.

Members serve a two year term with eleven new members elected each year.

Participation on the Council is an unique opportunity for youth to:

- ⊙ intimately observe the legislative process,
- ⊙ interact in civic engagement and activism,
- ⊙ participate in the creation of public policy,
- ⊙ and much more!
